LESS IS MORE

In our Mom's Bible Study, we have been sharing ideas on the season of Advent and what that looks like in our homes. Whether you light an Advent wreath and read the Lord of Life Devotional each evening, decorate your Christmas tree as a family, choose a family to adopt this Christmas or share cookies with the community, there are simple ways to show our kids that giving can be just as fun, or even better, than receiving. When we provide opportunities for our children to be the hands and feet of Christ, we help point them to the true meaning of Christmas.

This season, I encourage all of our families to take time out of the busy-ness this season can create and keep it simple. Let us take a step back from the presents that need to be bought and wrapped, the lines and the chaos to remind ourselves and our families what Christmas is really about: the love of a God who gave us the most precious gift, in the form of a baby.

FAMILY CAMP AT LUTHERHILL

Calling families of all shapes, sizes and ages! It's time to escape suburbia and go enjoy the great outdoors. Lutherhill is a beautiful setting to enjoy all of God's handiwork. There will be camp activities like outdoor worship, campfires, outdoor sports and games, arts and crafts, adult Bible study, ropes course and hiking. Of course you can always use this time for R & R if you choose. Costs this year are $85 for ages 13-adult, $60 for kids ages 3-12 and children under 3 are free. Scholarships are available.
