Worship with us on Sundays:

As we celebrate the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation, our children have been taking a closer look at Martin Luther. Luther was a theology professor in the 1500s, composer, priest and monk who took a stand against injustices in the church at the time. Not only did he nail the 95 Theses to the Wittenburg Castle Church door, but he put the Scriptures in the hands of the people to read. 2 Timothy 3: 16 says "All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work."

Lord of Life put the Scriptures into the hands of five third-graders this month. Now, as parents and congregation members, it is our job to teach, train and help our children learn what the Bible says and how to live it out in their daily lives. It is the second part of that statement that is the hardest. How do we help our children live out the Gospel? We model and stand up for the injustices, just like Martin Luther and allow our children to see us doing it. Stand up for what is important to you and your family. Let us raise world-shakers who have an identity in Christ.
